

Décor for goths

February 18, 2010 | BY CINDY MCNATT

If you like your antiques a little other-worldly, check out a new stall 'Pandora's Parlor' at the Old Barn Antique Mall in San Juan Capistrano.

Diane collects taxidermy, Victorian pieces, old bottles of magic potions, doll heads and vintage photos. Even though her collection leans towards ghostly, or ghastly depending on your tastes, according to her web site, she also likes pugs: living, breathing pugs.

Check her web site at: pandorasparlor.blogspot.com or visit at 31792 Camino Capistrano, San Juan Capistrano. 949-493-9144.
